Dear Miki,

Life is a sick twisted game...
ITS all about the game, and how you play it, its all about control and if you can take it, its all about your debt ~~and~~ (if you have any) and if you can pay it, its all about pain and whos gunna make it... One moment you think you have absolute control and the next you lost everything... I have been at these cross roads for a while... It wasn't until recently that I was pushed over the edge...
Looking back, it was something that was inevitable. I wish I could have seen you one last time before but time ran out for me quickly.
I'm sure you have heard a LOT but im telling you the truth here. I stalled this for a LONG time. Its some thing I should have done when I was pulled from Seal training. But I wanted to give life ~~a chance~~ one last chance.

but ultimately I lost the ~~game~~ game... BUT!! In chess, you sacrifice pawns to save your major pieces. I had to go any ways. I have lost so much of myself, I doubt any part of me ~~is~~ was still whole... As unfair as this was, the last time I went home, was ~~the~~ what was going to determine if I did this or not...

Back to the chess thing, I had to go anyways, I hope me doing this makes yours, Katrenia, and Kristens lives easier at the command. When you're taking a walk through the garden of life, what do you think you'd expect you would see? I was hoping to find answers that were actually good, not a dead end at every corner... I shouldn't say that... There were a few ways out, but I was so tired and exhausted and mentally drained to the point where it wasn't worth it and more importantly I wasn't willing to go through or do the other options... Every thing was such a drag and I was done. For me, the cost ~~to~~ to ~~keep~~ keep playing the game wasn't what it was actually worth. One dark mistake led to a never ending road. I can't help but think how everything would be or have gone differently if I went to college instead of join... The biggest mystery ~~is~~ you will face in life is figuring out who you are yourself, forever growing, forever changing, and lastly forever learning. No one knows the meaning of life but the key to life is to live happily. You face a tough ~~decision~~ decision coming back to VA. Let me help you for a second. You and Katerina were very cute together. BUT! If she doesn't make you truly happy, keep her as a friend.

I can tell you that, this is a BIG hope but, due to the last thing I told her, she probably has opened up more and is better with herself now. I can't promise you anything, all I can do is trust in her that she took it to heart and sought after what she needed. And that's all I can say about that. You are so easy to talk to about anything. I hope I didn't hurt you at all for making the choice I did... I was a complicated mind in a simple society. Overall I didn't belong or fit in anyway lol (ಽಽಽ) I didn't tell you I was thinking this because 1. It was my choice to make 2. There was truly nothing you could have done ~~for~~ said to make me change my mind. My life was pretty much done before I got to VA, the command made it that much worse.

again I wish I could have seen you one last time, welcome you ~~to~~ home, got a hug and leave it at that. Time ran out. If theres one thing I'm good at, its steamrolling my name through the mud for a better cause. I hope it worked ~~and~~ so others don't have to go through what I had to in the Navy. There was a bigger reason behind it. The future was already ruined for me, HOPEFULLY the relate process changed(es) for the better. I know I'm all over the place with this, lol ☺ you are one of the greatest people I have ever met. NEVER forget that! honestly I didn't even want to go aircrewman. I just wanted out of the command and to get in a hopefully better environment. ~~and~~ and that wasn't a gaurentee in itself because the crewmen I was going for was just a radar person in the sky.

 That wasn't entertaining to me... I hope you don't think you could have done something because you really couldn't, even if you were here and not on the ship. I'm going to make you look like an idiot for a second, hug? -(^ ^)- Yes I hugged the paper, your turn LOL!! 😊 We have had some interesting conversations about life. If I was able to help you through something, or better yet even teach you something, then I did what I was supposed to do. My "job" was to make others look good, keep others safe, help others do what they were put here to do. ~~_____~~

~~_____~~
~~_____~~ which reminds me...
 GET YOUR WRIST LOOKED AT!!! 😊 Well... I don't know what else to say other than thank you for giving me a chance and being an actual real friend!! ~~you~~ you are truely the best!!!

- With friendly love & 😊

- Brandon 😊
A.K.A. ~~Caserta~~

navy slave name,
Please don't remember me like that...

P.S. - Its so weird... I guess this is ~~my~~ my last goodbye to the rest of the world... I just hope you and the others can remember me in a good way

P.S.S. - Looks like our game of chess is going to have to wait.
DON'T be in a rush to play it!!
I do hope you and Katerina can play each other at least once lol 😊
